

The Third Little Pig

by Faith Third Grade

The third little pig,
Built a house that was big.

The wolf wanted to have pig stew,
So he huffed and puffed until he turned blue.

The house was very strong,
The chimney was extra long.

One little slip and into a pot,
Very uncomfortable--way too hot!

Up, out, and away,
The little pig lived another day!
